

BENJAMIN POLLOCK'S
TOYSHOP
THEATRE OF WONDERS

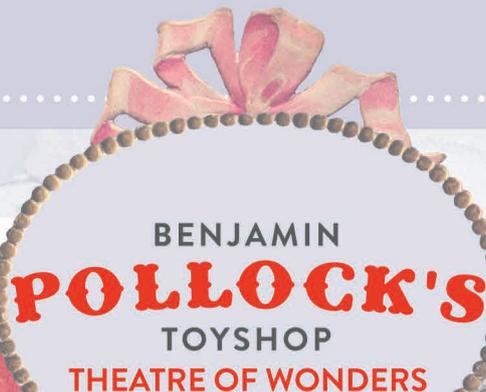

There's only going to be one Christmas 2020 and this year Benjamin Pollock's Toyshop is bringing it to Covent Garden with Benjamin's Christmas Bazaar.

Voted one of the most Christmassy places in London by Time Out, Benjamin Pollock's Toyshop is popping up at the entrance to the iconic Market Building. Behind the wonder wood you will find the theatre of wonders!

With a display created by instagram sensation Dolly Treasures recycling vintage toys - the popular Maileg mice will be taking up residence in the windows.

Known for its Christmas decorations and advent calendars, Benjamin Pollock's Toyshop will be expanding its Christmas selection at 5A, The Market Building whilst it's world famous Toy Theatres can be found at no. 44 along with shadow boxes, miniatures and traditional toys.

New gifts for 2020 will include, journals for aspiring creatives, actors and dancers The Lovie Diaries, hand painted children's chairs by Pierrot Chairs, miniature paper gardens to make from POSalk and a new wooden toy theatre for younger children from Pollocks. We have added to our range of Shadow Plays which make perfect stocking fillers to entertain the kids on those long evenings up to Christmas.

Underneath the Bazaar is a secret Pollock's woodland grotto. Populated by a forest of mysterious tree elves, poets and key keepers, the grotto includes work by artists and designers Mr Zeel, Alex Hellum and Pantovola and will be by appointment only.
